

Connected Threads: Quilting Tradition to Modern Mayhem

Watertown Free Public Library
Tuesday, November 16, 2021
7 - 8:30 PM

Quilting Journeys Lectures

An opportunity to listen to and interact with internationally known members of Watertown's own Quilters' Connection quilt guild. See their work and hear about their journey in quilting.

RoseMary Koch and her traditional quilts with colorful twists

Susan Polansky surprises with photograph inspired quilts.

Julie Fei-Fan Balzer takes quilting to unexpected places of modern art and surface design.

Don't miss the quilt exhibition by members of Quilters' Connection on the library's 2nd floor.

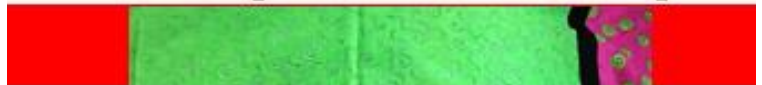

Upcoming classes at HATCH taught by members of Quilters' Connection

11/22/21 A Strip Piecing Hot Mat - Missy Shay

12/6/21 Hot Dog Pillowcase - Jane Norberg

12/13/21 Magic Origami Bag - Jane Norberg

12/20/21 Curved Fabric Bowls - Sara Schechner

1/10/22 English Paper Piecing - Jane Norberg

1/24/22 Sew Greeting Cards - Karen Hohler

Register through the library web site.

An Auction Of Quilts/Wall Hangings,
& fabrics and quilting supplies

Thursday, December 2, 2021

Preview - 6:00 pm; Auction - 7:00 pm

St. James Armenian Church, Keljik Hall

465 Mt. Auburn Street,

Watertown, MA 02472

COVID SAFETY MEASURES
UNCROWDED HUGE VENTILATED HALL
MASKS REQUIRED

Handicap Accessible &
Plenty of Free Parking

Check QC website for auction items:
www.quiltersconnection.org