

QC Exhibiting Quilts in November

QC will be exhibiting quilts in the second floor gallery of the Watertown Free Library for the entire month of November. This is a great opportunity to show who and what we are to the entire city of Watertown.

Even better - you can put your quilt up for sale if you so choose. The exhibit grates are 78" tall so that would be the maximum possible to hang. Within that restriction, pieces can be all sizes and shapes.

Coordinating the exhibit will be Missy Shay and Athila Jarrah.

We need your help:

- 1. Become a member of the planning committee.
- 2. Become a member of the put up and take down crew.
- 3. Sign up to exhibit your work.

Full disclosure:

The space will be unmanned and open to the public. We will be securing quilts to the grates (with zip ties?). But understand that pieces will be touched despite signs to the contrary. Also, in all the years the library has had exhibitions there has been only one theft (for which the library does not take responsibility).
