President's Letter

I hope you all had a wonderful summer and are looking forward to an exciting QC year. So, "WOW" we are all looking forward to our "Sold Out" special event evening with Kaffe Fasset. We hope you purchased your tickets. At this late date, Fabric Place in Arlington and Portsmouth Fabric may have a couple left. Remember this is a special evening and NOT considered one of our membership meetings. Our first meeting of the year, SHOW & TELL and NEW MEMBER RECEPTION, will be Tuesday, October 23rd and we have added a meeting on Monday evening, December 17th.

Now a major QC concern. The definition of Volunteer a person who performs, gives his services, assumes an obligation of his own free will... We have several open positions for 2012/2113, e-communications, boutique chair and nominations. We are also forming committees to review our by-laws and to search for a new space. If you are interested in being an active member in one of these committees, please let me know. Scholarship, calendar, information table and historian committees have been eliminated due to email/computerization of information, budget concerns, and lack of volunteers to man these positions. One of our most popular events of the year is the Winter Free Workshop - we are recruiting teachers and volunteers.

To keep you all current, this year's Raffle Quilt, QC's 9-patch fabric blocks is fabulous. It was graciously machine quilted by our own Laurie Laconte and was admired by many at the Quilt Show while I was working on the binding. It will be shown again at the October meeting's Show & Tell, the December Boutique and this year's quilt show. Tickets will be available starting in October.

Just a reminder lets all wear our NAME TAGS...with almost 400 members it's difficult to remember everyone's name. If anyone has any ideas, suggestions, questions or wants to volunteer you can always reach me by email at eeaastone@rcn.com.

Thanks,
Elaine Stone

News and Notes

Gail Dwyer had three of her quilts juried into the Images Quilt show in Lowell this summer.

Pat Delaney was the featured quilter at Images with eighteen of her quilts on display.

Elin Noble had an exhibition at the Colo Colo Gallery in New Bedford MA, August 23 - September 9. This exhibition featured 30 framed ink-generated forms using the traditional Turkish Ebru marbling technique in an alternative way.

QC members Pam Goody, Susan McCraw, Lucy Nims-LaFleche, Gladys Perkins, Susan Polansky, and Ferne Jeffers Weissman will exhibit their work at Broadmoor, the Audubon sanctuary in South Natick, during the month of October. Flora/Feathers/Fabric! opens October 1st, and an artists' reception with musical entertainment will be held on Sunday, October 14, from 2 to 4 p.m. The Broadmoor Nature Center, on Route 16 at 280 Eliot Street, is open from 10 to 5 on weekends and from 9 to 5 Tuesday-Friday.

Miriam K. Sokoloff's quilt "Attic Windows on Jerusalem" was accepted for the juried exhibit "The Many Faces of Jerusalem", sponsored by the Israeli Quilters Association. It is one of 39 quilts on display through December 9th on the campus of Brigham Young University in Jerusalem.

September Update from Program Committee

Special Event: Friday September 28th 2012

“An Evening with Kaffe Fassett”

Koumantzellis Auditorium at Bentley University

It's been a busy summer making plans for QC's Special Event: “An Evening with Kaffe Fassett.” We started the summer with ticket sales for our members and a few weeks ago we released additional tickets at a higher price for Non-QC members. Fabric Corner and Portsmouth Fabrics have also sold non-member tickets! We have people attending the event from Connecticut, Maine, New Hampshire, New York, Vermont and, of course, Massachusetts. We are thrilled to say, that the event is a sell-out!

If you plan to attend, please make sure to print a copy of the parking permit for the event (page 4 of this newsletter). Please put it on your interior windshield and park in the QC designated locations. Don't forget to bring your ticket, as there will be none available at the event. The event has non-assigned seating. Doors will open at 6:00 pm for general seating. The lecture starts promptly at 7:00 pm in the Koumantzellis Auditorium at Bentley University in Waltham, MA.

Fabric Corner will have a sales area, featuring several of Kaffe's books and special packets of some of his fabric collections. It will be great to shop before the event - in time to participate in the book signing after his lecture.

Parking Permit for The Conference Center at Bentley

Valid 9/28/12 only

Please post this document on your dashboard to avoid a parking ticket.

Parking is permitted in Morrison Lots 8 and 9

Vehicles must be legally parked or they will be towed at owner's expense.

Your program is located in the Koumantzelis Auditorium (room 38) on the third floor of Lindsay Hall – Building E.

BUILDING DIRECTIONS:

1. Park and return to the entrance of the Morison parking lots.
2. Take the diagonal cross walk to the opposite side of College Drive.
3. Proceed past the traffic gate to the top of the incline.
4. Bear right and follow the upper path until you come to the top of the hill.
5. Continue on straight towards the building directly in front of you. You will see a brick arch entrance and a black sign reads Lindsay Hall, Koumantzelis Auditorium.
6. Enter the building and you will see two sets of stairs leading up. Both of these staircases will take you to the Auditorium
